In regard to the Loyalist families of Chaleur Bay, among the collections at the BANQ Gaspé are original documents addressing food distribution to needy Loyalist families during the famine period of 1816. These documents were previously held by the Provincial Court of the District of Gaspé - Dossiers #2002-02-016/1, cote TL26,S2,SSS777 (Cote stands for shelf item #)

Description of these documents:

1816-1918 – December 14th 1816 – January 3rd 1817, written correspondence between François Demers, priest, and William Crawford, judge of the Provincial Court for the District of Gaspé, addressing the citizens of Chaleur Bay in regard to a famine that affected the Bay of Chaleur from December 14th 1816 to March 22nd 1817. They include the solutions proposed by Demers and Crawford in regard to the acquisition and distribution of food (#1 to 80)
December 14th 1816 to July 3rd 1818, and documents describing the distribution of food allocated to the needy Loyalist families and others.
